IS IT:

No?

Not right now?

Yes, when...?

Shape Our Village

If the request is something unsafe or inappropriate, a clear "No" helps set consistent boundaries.

IS IT A

No all the time?

Sometimes, the request is reasonable but not feasible at the moment. A "not right now" response teaches patience and timing.

IS IT A
Not right now?

If the request can be granted with conditions (like completing a task first), this approach encourages responsibility and independence.
